

Hot-seating

What is Hot-Seating? A character is questioned by the group about their background, behaviour and motivation. Hot-seating is a way of developing (or deepening) character. If you are in the hot seat you answer questions from others in the group while you are 'in role'.